Creating a “Win-Win” for Adult Learners and Talent for Industry

Participants:

Nina Buik, Ingram Micro - Sr. Principal Business Develop, Marketing Manager, Professional and Training Services

Becky Lodewyck, University of Phoenix - Vice Provost, Instructional Technology and Learning,

Brenda Perea, Colorado Community College System Instructional Design Project Manager

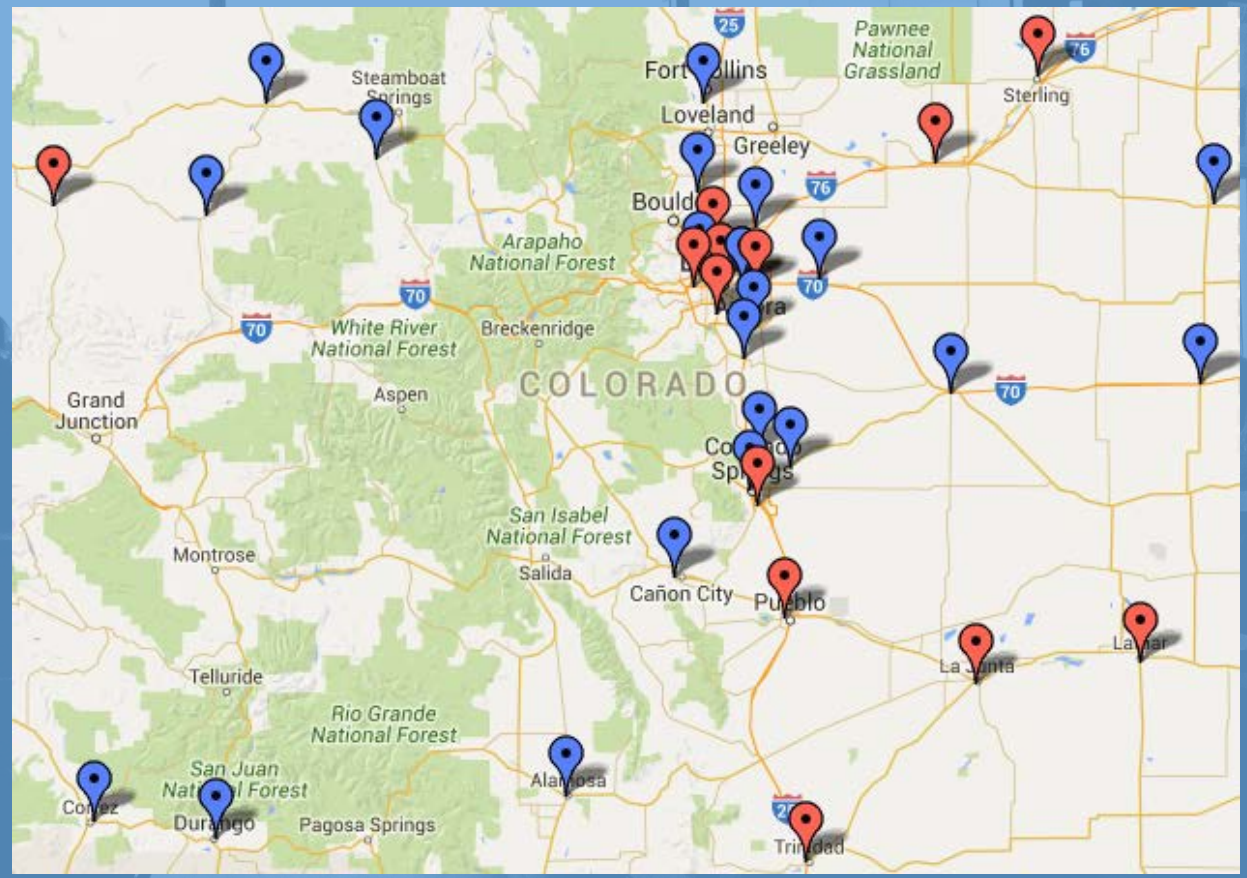
Dawn Roller, University of Phoenix - Dean of Specialized Corporate Services and VP, IS&T Strategic Partnerships

Pete Janzow, Pearson Acclaim - Senior Director (Moderator)

INGRAM MICRO
University of Phoenix®

Colorado Community College System

CCCS has 13 Colleges And 37 Campuses State Wide



Colorado Community College System Badges

- We're currently badging in four areas: Math, Faculty Development, Engineering Graphics and Machining.

Technical Math

6 Mastery
19 Competency based badges

Machining Level I

11 Industry requested badges based on National Institute of Metalworking Skills Certifications

Engineering Graphics

9 Industry requested badges based on Colorado business advisory input

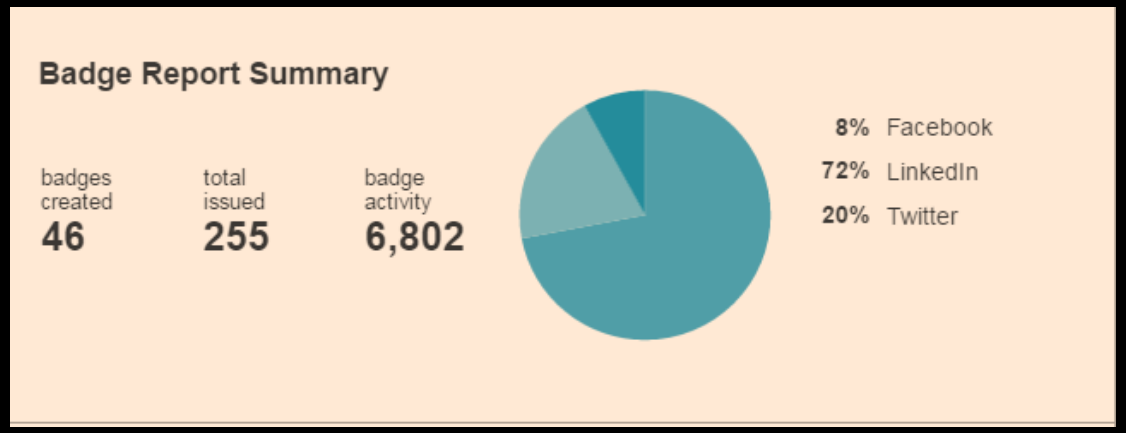
Faculty Development

8-9 badges to ensure a mastery skill level for instructors teaching online and hybrid courses

Marketing Your Institution and Your Students Skills with Badges

As of May 15, 2016

- 255 Badges have been issued and viewed via Social Media 6,802 times.



- Badges can be branded with your institutional name, colors, and logos.
- Employers and friends of students see the skills coming from that institution and create brand recognition.

Creating a “Win-Win” for Adult Learners and Talent for Industry